The NEWS BOX

September 2009

REBS President says...

The Exploring Local Currencies Workshop held in Wellington was very successful. We had people come from all around New Zealand sharing their info on the currencies that they are involved in.

REBS is holding its Annual general meeting on the 19th of September which will include electing a committee for the year ahead of us. Please put forward your nominations for positions on the trust. It will be held at Donna's place if you need directions please call her on 3457282.

We had 5 new members join in August, hopefully just the start of many more members joining REBS. If you know someone that might want to join please phone Peter Granger on 3443528.

WHAT'S UP @ REBS?

The REBS elections is going to be held on the 19th of September, please use the nomination slip if you would like to be part of the REBS team.

REBS Market Day is on the 12th of September. To have a stall please contact Michael on 344-5032.

REBS Committee Meeting is to be held on the 19th of September.

GREEN FLICKS

Conservation
Week's Movie Night

When: Tuesday 15th September, 7 to 8.45 pm

Where: Davis Lecture Theatre (below Museum on Watt Street)

Cost: Entry is by gold coin donation

Programme

"Exhuming Adams" - a cold case type investigation using computer animation and the World's museum archives.

"Building without blueprints" - The story of a father working on his dream of a sustainable family home.

"Whetu Rene, the Sea Lion and the Comet" - A true story about the World's rarest sealion species, supplied by the Sealion Trust. A real tear jerker, bring your hankie!

"Lessons from a Melting Icecap" - Three New Zealand girls travel to Greenland to investigate the melting icecap.

For more information contact: Graham & Lyn Pearson
Phone 3441012 pearsonandl@clear.net.nz

This year's conservation week theme is "Get Involved - Kia Mahia te Mahi"
So come along for an educational and fun night out at the Movies.

JOKE TIME

A rich millionaire decides to throw a massive party for his 50th birthday, so during this party he grabs the microphone and he announces to his guests that down in the garden of his mansion he has a swimming pool with two great white sharks in it. 'I will give anything they desire of mine, to the man who swims across that pool.'

So the party continues with no events in the pool, until suddenly, there is a great splash and all the guests of the party run to the pool to see what has happened.

In the pool is a man and he is swimming as hard as he can, and the fins come out of the water and the jaws are snapping and this guy just keeps on going and the sharks are gaining on him and this guy reaches the end and he gets out of the pool, tired and soaked.

The millionaire grabs the microphone and says, 'I am a man of my word, anything of mine I will give, my Ferraris, my house, absolutely anything, for you are the bravest man I have ever seen. So sir what will it be?' the millionaire asks.

The guy grabs the microphone and says, 'Why don't we start with the name of the mongrel that pushed me in!'
